Dear [Mr./Ms./Mx.] [Hiring Manager's Last Name],

I was excited to see your listing for the [Cyber Security Position] at [Company Name] on [Website Where Job Posting Was Found]. As a rising junior Cybersecurity analyst, I am motivated to stay ahead of emerging threats. I am confident in my ability to effectively contribute to your team and look forward to the opportunity to bring my exceptional technical, analytical, and problem-solving skills to the position of [Cyber Security Position].

During my recent internship at Providence Health & Services, I had the opportunity to immerse myself in defensive cyber operations as a SOC analyst. Through hands-on experience and collaboration with seasoned professionals, I honed my skills in threat detection, incident response, and system reliability enhancement. Please consider the following highlights of this position:

- Contributed to a 20% reduction in potential breaches through proactive monitoring and analysis of security events.
- Meticulously analyzed log data leading to the identification and resolution of systemic vulnerabilities, resulting in a 15% increase in system reliability.
- Collaborated closely with SOC team members to develop and implement proactive security measures, leading to a 25% decrease in reactive incident response time.

I am particularly drawn to [Company Name] due to [Reason specific to company applying for]. I am eager to bring the full force of my capabilities and passion to your security team, contributing greatly to the continued protection of your organizational assets and delivering exceptional compliance in the process.

Thank you for taking the time to consider my application. I am excited for the opportunity to discuss how my background, skills, and enthusiasm for the [Cyber Security Position] align with the strategic goals of the company. You can reach me at your earliest convenience for an interview at my email or the number listed in the header.

Warm regards,

Ethan Epperson
